GALLANT DEWEY'S REPORT IS IN.

FULL TEXT OF HIS COMMUNICATIONS.

Victory More Brilliant than First Reports Represented.

WILD SCENES IN SPANISH CORTES--CARLISTS AND RE- PUBLICANS WITHDRAW--BATTLE EXPECTED NEAR PORTO RICO.

Washington, D. C., May 7.-(Special)—The long looked for report from Commodore Dewey came this morning and it was a glorious record of American valor.

In brief the Commodore reported officially that his fleet had won a decisive victory and captured the city of Cavite on one side of Manila bay and established a base of supplies.

On the morning of May 1 his fleet approached Manila and was fired upon by the forts at Cavite and the Spanish fleet, under protection of the forts, began a vigorous attack. A naval battle of terrific fierceness followed and the Americans won a great victory. His fleet did not lose a ship, but destroyed eleven of the enemy's vessels.

The American vessels engaged were: Olympia, cruiser (flagship) Capt. C. V. Gridley, Rear Admiral, George Dewey, Commander-in-Chief.

Baltimore, cruiser, Capt. N. M. Dyer. Boston, cruiser, Capt. Frank Wildes. Raleigh, cruiser, Capt. J. B. Coghlan. Concord, gunboat, Commander Asa Walker. Petrel, gunboat, Commander E. P. Wood, and the smaller ships Naushon, Zafiro and one or two others.

The Spanish ships were: Reina Christina, Castilla, Velasco, Montevideo, Don Juan de Austria, unarmored cruisers.

Paragua, Callao, El Cono, General Lezo, Marques del Duero, Sammar, Mariviles, Mindoro, Manileno, Pampogua, Arayet, Calimaines, Balusan, Leyte, Atalora, Albay and Callao, gunboats.

General Alavo, Manila and Cebu, transports.

He estimates the loss of life on the Spanish side at 300, while only 6 Americans were killed and a few others wounded. In addition to the Spaniards killed, 350 were taken prisoners, many of them wounded. Dewey made a landing and has the prisoners under guard at Cavite and the Island is in his control. He has not bombarded Manila but is ready to proceed against it. He asks for troops to establish a provisional government.

The Cruiser Charleston, conveying the City of Pekin, will be ordered to leave San Francisco at once to take supplies and troops. The soldiers will be under command of Gen. Merriam.

Commodore Dewey has been appointed an Admiral in recognition of his gallant services and brilliant victory.

Later News Still Better.

The following official report was later given out:

Manila, May 1.—Squadron arrived at Manila at daybreak this morning. Immediately engaged the enemy and destroyed the following Spanish vessels: Reina Christina, Castilla, Don Antonio de Ulloa, Isla de Luzon, Isla de Cuba General Lezo, Marques de Duero, Correo, Velasco, Isla de Mindanao, a transport and water battery at Cavite. The squadron is uninjured, and only a few men are slightly wounded. Only means of telegraphing is the American consul at Hong Kong. I shall communicate with him.

"DEWEY."

Another Dispatch.

A further dispatch from Commodore Dewey says:

Cavite May 4.—I have taken possession of Naval Station at Cavite, on Philippine Island. Have destroyed the fortifications at bay entrance patrolling Garrison. I control Bay completely, and can take city at any time. The squadron in excellent health and spirits. Spanish loss not fully known, but very heavy: 150 men killed, including captain of Reina Christina.

"I am assisting in protecting Spanish sick and wounded. Two hundred and fifty sick and wounded in hospital within our lines. Much ex- citemen at Manila. Will protect foreign residents. (Signed.)

"DEWEY."

Spain's Multitude of Woes.

Washington, D. C., May 7.-(Special)—A great crisis is at hand in Spain. Riots that began in smaller cities have reached Madrid and to-day the mobs fired the city and untold damage was done. The flight of the Queen Regent to Austria is believed to be the next step and then will come a general uprising that can only mean the overthrow of the monarchy.

Other War Developments.

The Pope denies that he counseled the Queen to ask for mediation.

Matters are growing more serious every day at Porto Rico. Great distress prevails and the revolutionary spirit is spreading.

A military dictatorship with Campos at its head may be the outcome of the Spanish internal disorders.

Maj. Smith, who was sent to see Gen. Gomez, was captured and killed by Spaniards.

Cortes broke Up in a Row.

Madrid, May 7.—(Special)—The Cortes closed a most uproarious session. Senor Melli, Carlist deputy, used the quotation "Unfortunate is the nation whose Kings are boys, adding," "women always cause the fall of thrones." He refused to withdraw the language and was expelled, whereupon the Carlists and Republicans withdrew.

The Baltimore Was in it.

Hong Kong, May 7.—(Special)—The American ships were not damaged seriously. The Baltimore suffered most, shots striking her and exploding on her decks.

THEY'RE OFF.

Hopkinsville Soldiers are Now In Camp at Lexington.

Large Crowd at the Station to See Them Leave---Full Roster of the Company.

The soldier boys are gone. The armory is dark, and resounds no more with the measured tramp, the clank of war's accoutrements and the accents of command. The streets seem strangely silent without them and many familiar faces are missed "from the accustomed places."

There are many sad hearts, and anxious here in Hopkinsville, for the first time in more than thirty years the meaning of war is brought close to the homes and hearts of the people. There are many vacant chairs at the family tables and around the family firesides.

Many a mother's tender thoughts are with the boys who said good bye yesterday and went away as if upon a holiday jaunt. She gazes into the fire and wonders how he is faring and what the outcome will be. Many a sweet-faced maiden's meditation this morning, and her thoughts will be divided between the sermon and him who was sent to walk with her to the sun on Sundays when the sermon was done. And away up there in Lexington, no doubt there are those who infancy are walking the streets of Hopkinsville, or sitting in their pews, or standing at the familiar gates repeating the old, old story for the thousand people who had assembled at the station to bid them good-bye and to cheer them as they left.

The examination of the volunteers at Lexington will begin at once and in a few days it is reasonably certain that a number of mothers and sweethearts in Hopkinsville will have their loved ones restored to them by reason of inability to pass.

Roster Of the Company.

Following is a complete roster of the Company revised on the eve of departure:

CAPTAIN.
John Feland.
LIEUTENANTS.
E. B. Bassett, R. C. Payne,
1st Lieut. 2nd Lieut.

SERGEANTS.
George W. Phelps, C. O. Prowse,
1st Sergt. 2nd Sergt.

Harry Anderson, Gandy Bullard,
3rd Sergt. 4th Sergt.
Leslie Waller, R. C. West.

the farmers were looking a little blue over the prospects. Now it is thought that the crop will not fall far behind an average. With wheat at $1.60 and tobacco bringing an excellent price there is no good reason for the farmer to kick.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The Big Gathering In Session at Norfolk--Pickpockets Galore.

Norfolk, Va., May 7.—The forty-seventh annual convention of the Baptist church met at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Fully 2,500 delegates and visitors were present. The old officers were re-elected. Jonathan Haralson, Alabama, president; Lansing Burrows, Georgia; O. F. Gregory, Maryland, secretaries.

T. T. Eaton offered a resolution asking that, contrary to custom, Kentucky be allowed to appoint vacancies in the board of trustees serving. This was vigorously opposed by Carter Helm of Kentucky; J. H. Hawthorne, of Georgia, and W. E. Hatcher, of Virginia. The Eaton resolution was tabled.

Great enthusiasm was created on a resolution presented by Hon. W. J. Northern on freedom and religious liberty in Cuba and Spain. A commission was appointed composed of W. E. Hatcher, of Virginia; W. J. Northern and G. A. Stevens, of Missouri, to wait on President McKinley. Resolutions were sent to other religious denominations in session in Baltimore and New Orleans.

Welcome address by Dr. M. B. Wharton, formerly of the Walnut street church, Louisville, in behalf of Norfolk; H. E. Owens, state convention, and Mayor May for the city. Response by Rev. Dr. Traux of Texas.

Reports on Sunday school, foreign and home mission boards were read by Secretaries Frost, William, and Tichenor. The reports were referred to a committee to act on later. The house was packed. All are waiting for Whitsuntide question, which may come up at any moment. It is likely to come up to-night after the sermon. Treasurer George Norton, of Louisville, submitted a statistical report, showing an expenditure of $2,895,079.60. Members of the Baptist Southern church are estimated at 1,568,000, 9,770 Sunday schools, with 611,612 scholars. The meeting then adjourned till night.

Louisville is in the lead for the meeting place of the convention next year, by invitation of the Broadway church.

Pickpockets reaped a harvest yesterday from the delegates at the crowded ferries and in public places, one victim being Dr. State, of Lexington.

Cadiz Ball Club Defeated by Lo- cal Kids—Score 35 to 3.

An interesting game of base ball was witnessed at Sharpe's field yesterday by a large crowd. The contesting teams were made up from a number of small boys of this city and young men of Cadiz. The result was a very decided victory for the home team, the score being 35 to 3. The local club played as follows:

Ben Winfree s. s. Howell Ragle d. r. f. Faulkner Goldwhite 2d b.; Stanley West 3d b.; George Howell 1st b.; Sam Hayes c.; Chester Eggleton p.; Alf Eggleton c. f.; Edmund Starling l. f.

Hopkins County Shooting.

Thos. Barnes, a prominent citizen and mine owner of Nebo, was assassinated Friday night while sitting in his room; the shot was fired through the window, passing through his head. Blood drops were put on the trail, but owing to heavy rains they could not track. Excitement runs high and an armed posse is scouring the country. The assassin will be lynched, if caught, sure as fate.

Luke Smith has been arrested on suspicion and is held for trial. Barnes is still alive.

GALBREATH & STITES

Elected Members of The City School Board.

Little Interest Manifested in the Race—397 Votes Were Cast.

The annual election of the two members of the School Board was held yesterday in the City Court room. The officers appointed by the council to conduct the election were Messrs. George Bradley, Clarence Kennedy, E. B. Blakemore and Henry Wallace. Throughout the day the voting was steady but at no time were the officers crowded.

The candidates were Messrs. Jno. B. Galbreath, W. S. Davison and Dr. Frank M. Stites. There was no feeling between any of the gentlemen or their friends and no element of politics entered into the race. Galbreath had been urged by his friends to stand for election. Mr. Galbreath had served the people acceptably one term and his in- dorsement was a compliment to his efficiency and the interest he has evinced in the city's educational affairs. There was never any doubt as to his re-election. Between the several candidates there was no collusion or understanding. They permitted their names to be used by their friends and their tickets were printed separately.

The total vote, while by no means representing the strength of the white voters of the city, was heavier than the vote of last year.

The polls were closed at 4 o'clock and the vote canvassed by the officers. The result was the election of Mr. Galbreath and Dr. Stites.

The vote in detail is as follows:

Galbreath 397
Stites 290
Davison 227

Stites majority over Davison 63. The total vote last year was 340.

Dr. Stites is one of the most accomplished young men in the city. He is highly educated himself and a believer in higher education. He is progressive and public-spirited and alive to the interest of the city's schools.

The KENTUCKIAN has never been in the habit of finding fault with its patrons. It has generally taken things pretty much as they have come and tried to be satisfied with its lot. It is not out of place here to say that THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN is not receiving the proper treatment it should from the business men of the city. Those who advertise in it, want to do so by decreasing their space in the semi-weekly and even many of the subscribers and we have enough of them to make the paper a success if the payments were regular and prompt — ask us to apply to the Daily the advance payments on the semi-weekly. This of course brings no cash into the Daily and it takes money to run a daily paper. This one is not being run for glory and unless the people of Hopkinsville want it bad enough to pay the small sum of ten cents a week, it will not be run longer than is necessary to establish that fact. We have therefore decided to make the daily an experiment and let its future depends upon circumstances. If it pays we will keep it going, if it does not, we will continue to run the semi-weekly as heretofore and leave the daily field to others. This is a plain statement in advance and to carry out this idea we have withdrawn the annual subscription rate for the paper. It is the daily is properly patronized, it will stay with you. If not, it will quit as soon as we have shown what might be done in daily journalism in Hopkinsville.

The new prison commission law was sustained by Judge Cantrell in decision rendered Friday. He held that the defect in providing for a longer term of office for one commissioner than the Constitution permits can be remedied and does not invalidate the entire act. The case will go to the Appellate Court for final decision.

John Meredith, the eighteen-year-old son of Stroud Meredith, of Bee Springs, Edmonson county, was instantly killed Monday under distressing circumstances. Meredith and two young neighbor boys went squirrel hunting, and the gun of one of the boys was accidentally discharged. The full load took effect in Meredith's head, blowing out his brains.

War Veteran B. J. Newton writes in the Owenton Herald: "The biggest bullies and scampers at home do not always make the best soldiers. When quite a youth we knew a young man of the neighborhood who had the name of being the greatest fighter in all that part of the state, and yet he was a complete failure as a soldier. Upon the other hand, hand, in that same community, a was a mild-mannered, quiet boy, who could not be induced to fight under any circumstances, and was under the ban of 'coward' among all his acquaintances. That so-called coward made one of the bravest and best soldiers in the Eighth Virginian infantry, a regiment that was composed of as true material as ever went to battle."

Mayor Lang, of Paducah, is making a fine record, but the Paducah News says he has one drawback: "His size has been the cause of many amusing mistakes, and some of them are so laughable that the Mayor himself is compelled to acknowledge the corn and indulge in a quiet laugh occasionally. On one or two occasions visitors for the Mayor to make his appearance, and when His Honor would inform them that he was the gentleman in question, they have been known to exclaim: 'Well, I'll be d—, I thought you were the office boy.'"

H. B. Mantle, S. D. Glascock, James Mercer, W. H. Oliver, Dr. Willet and several more of our leading citizens have formed a company and purchased the lake between Stephenburg and this place. The lake is abundantly stocked with fish, and there is fine mineral water at hand. The capital stock is $5,000. — East View correspondent in Elizabethtown News.

The Telephone says: "Cadiz has worried along since 1820, and had up to this good hour no good reason to glory or object to her name. Suggest something at once."

Glasgow Times: Mr. J. W. Duff, of near Hisseville, now has some logs in his corn-crib, doing good duty yet, that were in the old Jesse P. Murrell school-house, when he taught school at the old Mt. FIFTY THOUSAND PEOPLE
Will Attend the Great Endeavor
Meeting in July.

The Seventeenth International Christian Endeavor Convention meets in Nashville this year. This means much to local Endeavorers and the public in general. The time for the gathering is July 6th to 11th. At this time more people will gather in the convention city than have assembled in any Southern city in its history. Conservative estimates place the number of people to be in attendance at 50,000, and even conservative estimates have always failed to forecast the size of the crowds who attend these meetings.

Hopkinsville's part in the work of preparation and entertainment of the convention will be considerable. Already the local Union has appointed Nashville committees, which are rapidly getting their work in shape. Being situated on the railroad over which a great many of the delegates will pass, the Endeavorer, of our churches, are being looked to by the Nashville and Boston leaders, to perform an active part in helping give the passing young people a hearty welcome as they go through the town, and also to board the trains and assist in getting them quickly to assignment when Nashville is reached.

It will be an interesting sight to see the long trains of Pullman sleepers, gaily decorated in Endeavor colors and banners, filled with enthusiastic young people from the far away West, Northwest and North. This being an order station, all the trains will be stopped here.

Our young people will show them what a Kentucky welcome is. The depot will be decorated in the state C. E. colors, and members of the Reception Committee will do all in their power to make the few minutes of their stay here, a memorable time for the visitors.

A large number of people from the city and surroundings will attend the sessions of the convention. Never has there been a meeting of any kind in the South that has brought together as many prominent men as this convention. And to have this just at our doors is an opportunity that hundreds should avail themselves of a one fare round trip rate—or even a cheaper one—will prevail, making the cost of going merely nominal. Excellent lodging will be secured for all who desire to go, for $1.00 to $1.50 per day. The securing of this advantage is not confined to Endeavorers alone but all who want accommodations reserved for them can make the arrangements by applying to the local Transportation Committeeman.

MALCOLM BODDIE'S FUNERAL.

Attended by Many Sorrowing Friends—Iroquois Club Sends Beautiful Floral Tribute.

The funeral and interment of the late Malcolm Boddie's body, who died Wednesday while on a visit to Waco, Texas, took place at the old McNeil homestead, two miles east of Lafayette yesterday. The body arrived on the previous evening in charge of Mr. Nick Boddie, a brother of the deceased, who was with him at the time of his sad and premature death.

The funeral services were brief but very impressive and beautiful. They were conducted by Rev. Granville Lyon, pastor of the Methodist church at Lafayette, assisted by the pastor of Ashbury Methodist church, the deceased having affiliated with that denomination.

Many floral offerings of exquisite design rested upon the casket, fragrant testimonials of the love and esteem of those who had been associated with him in life. Among the most beautiful and costly of these was the tribute of the Iroquois club of Chicago, which was represented by Mr. Rivera McNeil, a cousin of the deceased.

The funeral was attended by a large number of friends, from the community where Mr. Boddie was born and reared and where his memory will live and the noble qualities of his heart will not soon be forgotten.
